

"The Alternative Barley Mow Run"

Wednesday, 28th June 2017

As you will have heard, Judy is very busy dealing with, amongst other things, a hopefully very happy forthcoming addition to their family.

I have, therefore, stepped in and before we lose the lovely weather, suggest that rather than meeting at The Barley Mow in the evening, we should meet for coffee mid morning in Chobham and then enjoy a reasonably gentle run to The Barley Mow at Englefield Green for lunch. This pub is owned by Raymond Blanc and is currently offering a wonderful lunchtime menu for £11.95 for 2 courses.

Meet at 11 am at The Four Horseshoes, Burrowhill Green, Chobham GU24 8QP - a route map will be handed out at the start.

After lunch there will be reasonably short walk into nearby Great Windsor Park to visit the entrance to The Royal Lodge (former private residence of George VI and The Queen Mother and now home of Prince Andrew) and then to the statue of George III at the top end of the Long Walk where Henry VIII sat and waited for news of the execution of his second wife, Queen Anne Boleyn. Coffee/Tea can then be enjoyed at The Fox and Hounds, by the Bishopsgate entrance to the Park

I have provisionally reserved a table for 18 for lunch at The Barley Mow.

Please contact me (NOT JUDY OR THE CLUB WEBSITE) as soon as possible to advise whether you wish to attend and let me have your choice from the attached menu.
